I am passionate about people developing and growing and finding peace within themselves. I particularly enjoy helping people to discover truth and change their lives by changing their thinking.

I am in the process of registering as a counsellor and have completed two years through Massey University and Laidlaw College (Bible College of New Zealand). A mother of 5 school age children, I have worked as a midwife and registered nurse for the last 20 years and bring to my counselling practice a range of experience and a delight in helping people get the most out of their lives.

I am currently on placement with Assurance Counselling and Mediation Service with Sue Adams (placement supervisor).
